Subject: STREAMLINING CORRECT USE OF PAKISTAN POLITICAL MAP.

Kindly refer to subject cited above and to state that the Surveying and Mapping (Amendment) Bill, 2020 has been passed by the Parliament on Wednesday 16th September, 2020. The Surveying and Mapping (Amendment) Bill, 2020 is aimed at preventing the printing, displaying, dissemination of or use of any incorrect and unofficial map of Pakistan. The official Political Map of Pakistan is attached herewith for perusal (Soft copy of Official Political Map of Pakistan is also available on www.peira.gov.pk).

2. The Surveying and Mapping (Amendment) Bill, 2020 states that;

Amendment of section 16 (6): No one can print, display, disseminate, use or circulate incorrect and unofficial version of map of Pakistan or any part of Pakistan in hard or digital form. All individuals' firms, organizations or departments shall get their maps vetted and cleared from Survey of Pakistan before use, publication, dissemination or circulation.

Amendment of section 3 (3): Survey of Pakistan shall be technical department for all activities involving surveying, mapping, geographic information system or remote sensing and geospatial information technologies in the country.

Amendment of section 20 (vi): Any individual, firm, organization or department involved in printing, displaying, disseminating, using or circulating incorrect and unofficial version of map of Pakistan or any part of Pakistan in hard or digital form shall be liable to be imprisoned for a term which may extend up to five years or a fine of five million rupees or both.

3. In view of above and in terms of Section 5 Islamabad Capital Territory Private Educational Institutions (Registration and Regulation) Act, 2013 and Section 6(c), (d), (j) of Private Educational Institutions (Registration & Fee Determination) Rules, 2016, the management of Private Educational Institutions operating in Islamabad Capital Territory (ICT) are advised to;

- i. Display the official Political Map of Pakistan at their websites/institutions/display boards and wherever required;
- ii. Ensure that textbooks, learning and supplementary materials should include only official Political Map of Pakistan;
- iii. Promote awareness in students and teachers regarding Official Political Map of Pakistan.

4. All Private Educational Institutions are advised to ensure compliance in true letter and spirit without any failure to achieve the desired objectives.
